Q.1 Story

i) The Wolf in Sheep's Clothing

A wolf found great difficulty in getting at the sheep owing to the vigilance of the shepherd and his dogs. But one day it found the skin of a sheep that had been flayed and thrown aside, so it put it on over its own pelt and strolled down among the sheep. The Lamb that belonged to the sheep whose skin the Wolf was wearing began to follow the Wolf in the Sheep's clothing. So, leading the Lamb a little apart, he soon made a meal off her - and for some time he succeeded in deceiving the sheep, and enjoying hearty meals.

ii) The Ant and the Grasshopper

In a field one summer's day a Grasshopper was hopping about, chirping and singing to its heart's content. An Ant passed by, bearing along with great toil an ear of corn he was taking to the nest. "Why not come and chat with me," said the Grasshopper, "instead of toiling and moiling in that way?" "I am helping to lay up food for the winter," said the Ant, "and recommend you to do the same." "Why bother about winter?" said the Grasshopper; "We have got plenty of food at present." But the Ant went on its way and continued its toil. When the winter came the Grasshopper had no food and found itself dying of hunger - while it saw the ants distributing every day corn and grain from the stores they had collected in the summer. Then the Grasshopper knew: It is best to prepare for days of need.

The Horse Ride

© Annabel Sheila

Taking a romantic ride today,

We sat upon the wagon.

Suddenly the horse lifted his tail

And we heard a roaring dragon !

The deafening sound hurt my ears

And the smell burned the hairs in my nose.

My girlfriend sat and glared at me.

Somehow my fault I suppose.

It was my idea to take the ride,

But how was I to know ?

It really wasn't in my plans;

Didn't know the horse would blow.

The noise and the smell were bad enough,

As the wind blew quickly by.

But I think the very worst of it,

Was the brown stuff in my eye.

My girlfriend's face turned angry red.

So I figured I wouldn't dare,

Advise her of the smelly pieces

Oh horse stuff in her hair.

"A Thought True of U"

© Sean Raine

Rose are red

Violets are blue

Sugar is sweet

And I love you

Your smile is amazing

Your beauty so true

Your eyes shine like stars

They will see out love through

You're a gift from the angles

They made you in heaven

The girl that I dreamt about

Since I was eleven

You came in to my life

And you turned it upside down

You're an absolute princess

Worthy of more than a crown

I promise you everything

Everything I have to give

I promise to love you

As long as I live

You're my absolute world

You mean everything to me

You're perfect

And you always shall be
